4th Annual
Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Conference
“Improving Outcomes for Indian Children
Through Policy, Practice, and Partnerships”

The Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Association (OICWA) is pleased to announce the dates for its 2011 Indian Child Welfare Conference. The purpose of this year’s conference is to provide information & resources related to child welfare policies, practices, & partnerships that impact Indian children and their families. Workshops will focus on reducing the number of Indian children in state & tribal child welfare systems and improving their safety & well-being while in foster care.

Please join OICWA for this three-day event that will feature 42 workshops, three keynote addresses, performances by Native American entertainers, door prizes, and a silent auction.

For more information regarding the conference, visit www.oicwa.org.
