To Whom It May Concern,

The Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Association (OICWA) is pleased to announce the dates for its 4th Annual Indian Child Welfare Conference. The purpose of the conference is to provide information and resources related to the policies, practices, and partnerships that impact outcomes for Indian children in state and tribal foster care systems. Workshops will focus on reducing the number of Indian children in foster care and improving their safety and well-being while in foster care.

To ensure that this year's conference is a great success, OICWA is inviting tribal, state, and private organizations and businesses to take advantage of conference sponsorship opportunities. As a sponsor for the 2011 Conference, organizations and businesses will receive logo placement in the conference program and any other conference publications that may be created. Sponsors will also receive recognition on the OICWA web site.

Sponsorships provide opportunities for exposure and recognition of your organization or business and demonstrate your support to improving outcomes for Indian children and families. Sponsorships will provide for breaks, a luncheon, and scholarships and will assist OICWA in offsetting the cost of expenses related to audio/visual equipment rental, printing of conference materials, and travel for nationally recognized keynote speakers. Scholarships will enable foster parents and students to attend the conference at no cost.

Sponsorship opportunities available for this year's conference are detailed on the attached page. OIWCA will also accept monetary donations of any size as well as other gifts (e.g., gift cards, Pendleton blankets) that can be used as door prizes. Organizations, businesses, and individuals providing donations will also be recognized during the conference and in conference publications.

Thank you for considering an opportunity to become a sponsor for the 2011 Annual Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Conference. Your generous gift will assist OICWA in fulfilling its mission to promote the well-being of American Indian children, their families, and their tribes. If you have any questions regarding sponsorship opportunities, please contact Eddie Screechowl at 918-729-9315 or escreechowl@oicwa.org.

Sincerely,

Angela Connor
