CALL FOR ARTISTS

The Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Association (OICWA) Conference Committee invites American Indian and Alaska Native youth artists to participate in the Call For Artists. OICWA is excited to provide an opportunity once again for youth artists to showcase their talents in support of the 2022 Conference hosted by the Choctaw Nation Resort and Casino, Durant, Oklahoma. Each year the OICWA conference spotlights artwork illustrating Native children and families. The featured artwork will be utilized in the OICWA Conference material, Facebook, OICWA website, T-shirts, and posters. The OICWA Conference Committee is seeking artwork that depicts the theme: “Protectors of the Sacred Circle”.

One Grand Prize Winner will be chosen and will be awarded $300. All artists are invited to the “Opening Ceremonies” which will be held on November 30th, 2022, where they will be acknowledged for their work and receive their awards.

Please review the conference art requirements and use of image guidelines: 1) Artist must be a citizen of a Federally Recognized Tribe, 2) Artist must be a resident of Oklahoma, 3) Artist must be under the age of 18, 4) For reproductive purposes, no more than 6 colors should be used, 5) Deadline for Artwork Submission is Friday, October 7, 2022.

Please submit the following form as well as a high resolution (at least 300dpi) image of artwork (jpeg, tiff, etc.) Each artist may submit up to three pieces of art. Please submit a new form for each art piece.

For information on the call for artists competition including deadlines, requirements, submission forms, and the announcement, please contact oucwa.gc@gmail.com.
